BIO

Dave spent the last 16 years in the field of real estate appraisal, initially appraising single-family residential homes for lending purposes between 2004 and 2009. During that time, Dave began appraising commercial real estate which opened the door for his position at CBRE. Over an 11-year span at CBRE, he appraised a wide array of commercial real estate ranging from land and residential subdivisions to light industrial buildings, churches, schools, and multi-tenant office buildings.

Dave joined Peoples Company in February 2021 as the Director of Appraisal. Dave's responsibilities include managing and growing the appraisal business line across the country.
