BIO

Dillon Muth joined the Peoples Company Team in January of 2023. Dillon's passion for the outdoors and farming runs deep. Born in Palmyra, a small town in southern Wisconsin, he grew up raising and showing champion-level beef cattle. During his youth, he was extremely fortunate to have a family that introduced him to the outdoors. Dillon became very passionate about hunting and has been an avid outdoorsman as a young boy. When he was 16, he developed an interest in real estate, inspired by watching a family friend help so many people make their dreams a reality. Dillon pursued a career in real estate after high school and never once looked back. He began focusing on land and lake transactions, serving South Central Wisconsin.

At Peoples Company, Dillon works hard as a land agent to meet his clients' needs, whether it be buying or selling anything from hunting land to a family farm or large investment properties. His insight on and expertise in the area and the local market is unmatched. Working with Dillon comes with the promise that he'll do everything in his power to help you reach your goals while ensuring a stress-free and 5-star experience along the way. He truly lives up to the motto of taking care of people first.

Dillon resides in Marshall, Wisconsin, where – when he's not working – you can find him hunting, fishing, and watching sports. If you're looking to sell or buy land in Wisconsin or Illinois, give Dillon a call and let him go to work for you today.
