BIO

Matt is the Vice President of Finance at Peoples Company, where he leads a team managing the accounting and finance functions of the company and its affiliates and subsidiaries. As a part of the Peoples Company team, Matt works to ensure its clients and stakeholders achieve their investment goals. His many years of experience in professional property management gives him the insight clients are looking for in the professional management and analysis of their farmland investments.

Previously, Matt was the Sr. Director of Accounting and Asset Management at Blackbird Investments for one year, Vice President at T&L Properties for over ten years, and a Staff Accountant at Brooks Lodden, PC for two years.

He is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Property Manager, and a licensed Real Estate Broker. Matt was a previous board member of the Iowa Commercial Real Estate Association and is the current President of the Iowa Chapter of the Institute of Real Estate Management.

EDUCATION

After earning bachelor's degrees in Accounting and Business Management from Loras College, Matt never lost the desire to be a lifelong learner and a responsible contributor to his community. He believes that the greatest success is earned by helping others find their potential.
