ADAM MEYER, AFM

Land Manager

Adam grew up on a farm in Central Iowa, where he developed a lifelong passion for agriculture. He attended Iowa State University, earning a degree in Agricultural Systems Technology in 2007.

Adam began his career with John Deere, where he spent nearly a decade working in precision agriculture roles through 2016. He then transitioned into farm management, serving as a Professional Farm Manager with Hertz Farm Management and later with Murray Wise and Associates. In this role, Adam has accumulated over 10 years of experience managing farms and assisting with agricultural real estate, building a strong reputation for his expertise and client-focused approach.

In early 2026, Adam joined Peoples Company following its acquisition of Murray Wise and Associates. Throughout his career, Adam has developed a strong foundation in relationship building and problem-solving, earning the trust of clients and colleagues across the agricultural community.

Adam lives just outside of Dike, Iowa, with his wife, Meghan, and their three children, Leah, Hank, and Myla. He enjoys farming, coaching his children in sports, and being involved at Orchard Hill Church.
