ANDREW STECH

Land Manager

Andrew Stech joined the team in 2014 where he has focused on Land Management in Nebraska & South Dakota. Andrew's passion for agriculture that runs deep. He grew up on a family farm consisting of livestock & row crops near Osmond, Nebraska. Andrew works out of the Norfolk, Nebraska office.

Andrew is constantly striving to be up-to-date on the latest land & commodity market news. Since he is from a family farm operation, he knows firsthand what it takes to run a farm operation and how to manage the world's most precious resources, land and water.

Focused on providing a grounded and practical approach to land management, Andrew firmly believes in the principles of sustainability and the importance of strong relationships in agriculture. His ability to connect with farmers and communicate effectively with landowners allows him to understand their unique challenges. By building trust and maintaining open communication, Andrew ensures the best outcomes for those he serves. Andrew is well-qualified to serve you and all your farm & ranch needs.
