Jake joined the Peoples Company team in 2017 after completing his Bachelor of Science degree at Iowa State University, where he majored in Agricultural Business. Jake's core competencies include the marketing of rural property via various methods of brokerage and auction, handling trust and estate assets, 1031 exchanges, land consultation, dividing land amongst parties of interest, and buyer representation.

Jake grew up in Indianola, Iowa, where Peoples Company was originally founded in the 1960's. Jake feels that working for Peoples Company is a special thing, given the ability to learn from and collaborate with the best professionals in the land business on a daily basis. He values that while the company is well positioned to execute for clients at a high level across the entire county, Peoples Company still continues to do business where they have been helping people for nearly 70 years.
