BIO

Greetings! I am Kolt Kiburz, a dedicated and passionate agricultural Real Estate Agent specializing in farmland and acreage transactions. At 26 years old, I bring a fresh perspective and unwavering commitment to the agricultural real estate sector. With a keen understanding of the intricate dynamics of the agricultural industry, I embarked on a journey to bridge the gap between farmers, investors, and land enthusiasts. Armed with a solid agricultural background, I have cultivated a deep appreciation for the significance of land in agriculture and its impact on communities. My expertise lies in identifying, evaluating, and facilitating farmland and acreage transactions. I believe in a client-centric approach, where understanding your unique needs and goals is paramount. I take pride in fostering lasting relationships based on trust, transparency, and effective communication. Whether you're a seasoned farmer looking to expand your operations, an investor seeking lucrative opportunities in agriculture, or a beginning farmer looking for your first farm, I am here to guide you through the complexities of agricultural real estate. Your success in the real estate market is my top priority.
