Kyle specializes in brokerage services across Illinois, guiding landowners, producers, investors and potential clients through the buying and selling of farmland. By tailoring his approach to each property's unique features and clients' specific goals, he leverages proven methods such as competitive public auctions, traditional market listings, and private transactions.

Raised on a family farm in Mason County IL, Kyle gained hands-on experience in diverse crops like corn, soybeans, seed corn, green beans, and pumpkins. This upbringing ignited Kyle's passion for agriculture, driving him to earn a Bachelor’s degree of Finance in Agribusiness from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 2022.
