BIO

Mark Miller adds value to the Corporate Services team as a Strategic Advisor with over three decades of experience in corporate services, business development, and complex transaction execution. Known for his trusted reputation and results-driven approach, Mark leverages his deep industry knowledge to guide and mentor the Corporate Services team across financial analysis, asset acquisitions, valuation, and disposition as well as real estate management.

Mark's distinguished career spans 30 years with DuPont, Dow, and Pioneer in Johnston, IA, where he held a series of leadership roles. Most recently, he served as the Director of Corporate Services and North America Office Manager. In this capacity, Mark directed a wide range of corporate functions, including economic development, sustainable design, global facilities management, project management, travel and event coordination, facility and site maintenance, fleet management, global security, corporate aviation, and real estate brokerage. He was responsible for managing over 10 million square feet of global facilities and leading initiatives that spanned across the company's North American and global operations.

A seasoned professional, Mark has earned numerous certifications, including Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Management Accountant (CMA), Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), Accredited Purchasing Practitioner (APP), Certified Purchasing Manager (CPM), and Certified Green Belt - Six Sigma. He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and business administration from Simpson College.
