Peoples Company - Cumming
1108 S. 44th Street, Suite 102
Cumming, IA 50061

Quinn Kendrick serves as General Counsel for Peoples Company, overseeing legal strategy and operations across the organization and its affiliates nationwide, including M&A, real estate transactions, corporate governance, and risk management.

Raised in a farming family, Quinn blends practical agricultural insight with legal experience to support the company's mission of serving as the premier agricultural land services firm in the United States.

Quinn also serves on the Board of Directors for the International Ag Alliance, Inc., a global coalition dedicated to facilitating international investment and promoting responsible land stewardship. Additionally, he contributes to the legal and policy committees of the Farmland Capital Alliance, a nonprofit focused on large-scale U.S. farmland ownership and investment, where he also co-chairs the Ecosystem Services Working Group.

Quinn is licensed in Kansas and Iowa.
