For over 20 years, Rod has helped his clients meet their goals by bringing a wealth of business knowledge and agricultural experience to the table. He is available today to assist you in obtaining your goals as well!

He grew up on a farm seven miles north of Holdrege, Nebraska, and farmed for 16 years including having managed and operated a 500-acre irrigated farm in addition to a 100-head cowherd and fed cattle. Since 1988, Rod has been a full-time farm manager, appraiser and real estate salesperson.

He holds an associate business degree from Central Community College. In addition, Rod has attained the highest level as a certified appraiser, has an associate broker license, and has an appraising conservation easement certificate. Rod has been a member of Norfolk Rotary Club since 1995.
